

CONNECTICUT WATER ASSISTANCE

The Connecticut Low Income Water Assistance Program is open. Get help paying your water bills.

Households with annual income at or below 60 percent of the state median income can qualify for this one-time water assistance benefit. There is no asset limit. Help is available for both drinking water and wastewater bills.

If you get benefits from the Connecticut Energy Assistance Program, SNAP, TFA, SSI, State Supplement, or Refugee Cash, then you likely meet income requirements. Eligible households can begin submitting applications in Fall of 2021.

To Apply: Online at www.ct.gov/dss/WaterAssistance or contact your local Community Action Agency (see list on back). Show a copy of your current water/wastewater bill. The bill must be in the name of a household adult or emancipated minor.
