TEDx EastHartfordLibrary

x = independently organized TED event

Join us on the second Tuesday of each month to watch and discuss a variety of TED talks.

August 9, 2016 at 6:30 pm
Topic - Dino-mite Dinosaurs

We know now that some dinosaurs were warm-blooded, some had feathers, and some were far stranger in form and life than we ever imagined. During this Tedx Talk, we'll ponder why these extinct creatures continue to fascinate us.

*Tired of paying a fortune for digital music?
Come learn about Freegal, a music library database you can access through the East Hartford Public Library! On August 12 at 10:30 we'll learn how to log into Freegal, download music, stream music, and more!*

The Wild West of the internet can be a scary place. News reports tell us to be careful when online. Some even refuse to go online as a result. But, never fear. After this course, you'll learn how to protect yourself when venturing into cyberspace and be able to surf the web in safety. August 26 at 10:30

ADULT BOOK TALK

Saturday, August 13th at 10:30 am in the Creative Commons

Join us for an informal group talk to exchange titles and share reading recommendations. We will be talking about the latest best sellers, but feel free to share any great books you have read!
