The Senior Farmers Market Nutrition Program (SFMNP) is an electronic benefit card, available to eligible East Hartford residents that will be distributed by the Department of Health and Social Services. This is a supplemental food program, in which eligible participants receive an e-card annually to pay at a farmer's market authorized locations throughout Connecticut.

CT FRESH MATCH - END HUNGER CONNECTICUT

This is a partnership with CT Department of Agriculture to increase SNAP customer access to CT Grown farm products at farmers' markets.

When SNAP recipients shop at participating farmers' markets, Connecticut Fresh Match doubles SNAP, allowing households to stretch their benefits, incorporate more fresh produce into their diets, and support local farmers. Markets match SNAP with tokens or coupons to be spent on fruits and vegetables. Just bring your EBT SNAP card!
