East Hartford Invites you to Sounds of Summer Concert Series

East Hartford, CT— The Town of East Hartford is excited to invite community members and neighbors to enjoy a magical music experience this summer, overlooking the banks of the Connecticut River and the Hartford skyline. The Sounds of Summer, a series of free, family-friendly concerts are back for the summer and will be held at Great River Park, which is the perfect spot to listen to your favorite music. The Great River Park is located at 301 East River Drive in East Hartford. Please, bring a picnic basket, your friends & family and join us for this free event. The shows will begin on June 25 and go through August 8. There will be a show every Thursday from 6-8 p.m. In case of inclement weather, concerts will be cancelled. Any cancellations will be posted on the Town of East Hartford website www.easthartfordct.gov/parks-recreation and the East Hartford Parks and Recreation Facebook page at www.facebook.com/EHParks.
