East Hartford Youth Services is accepting nominations for the 34th annual Service to Youth Award.

East Hartford, CT—The winning individual will be acknowledged for their outstanding service to the youth of East Hartford. Past nominees have included teachers, superintendents of schools, social workers, clergy, parents, coaches, police officers, firefighters, businesspeople, club members, students, and volunteers.

Nominations can be made by anyone in the community and nomination forms are available at Town Hall, Raymond Library, Parks & Recreation, Youth Services (50 Chapman Place), and online at www.easthartfordct.gov.

This award is an opportunity to call deserved public attention to a person who has demonstrated his or her concern for the wellbeing of the youth population of the Town of East Hartford.

Completed forms along with the letter of recommendations outlining the nominee's outstanding service to youth must be returned to:

Jen King, Program Coordinator
c/o Youth Services
50 Chapman Place, East Hartford, CT 06108
Phone: 860-291-7183
Email: jking@easthartfordct.gov

The Deadline for submitting a nomination is April 19, 2019.

The award will be presented on May 4, 2019 during "Prevention Idol" youth talent show at the Community Cultural Center. The show is a free, family friendly event open to the East Hartford Community. Door prizes and refreshments will be served. Prevention Idol begins at 5:00 pm.
