Special Sunday Hours at the East Hartford Public Library

East Hartford, CT— The East Hartford Public Library is excited to announce that it will be open on Sundays during peak Census season. The Library was able to implement these special hours thanks to the generous financial support provided by the Hartford Foundation for Public Giving. The Library will be open on the following Sundays between 1:00 PM – 5:00 PM:

- March 22, 2020
- March 29, 2020
- April 5, 2020
- April 19, 2020
- April 26 (closed Easter Sunday, April 12).

For each Sunday library visit, attendees will receive a raffle ticket to a special drawing for a chance to win great prizes! The details on the raffle will become available soon.

Please remember that the East Hartford Public Library is your local hub of Census activity. Our staff members are happy to answer Census-related questions and provide you with computer and access to the Internet to be able to fill out the Census form online.

Since Census 2020 is the first online census, our public computers will serve as an important community resource, and our staff will be ready to assist with Census participation. As information professionals, our librarians know how important it is that our community members have accurate information about the Census, and they are prepared to provide it.
