

PRIVACY POLICY

FRAUD HOTLINE, LLC is committed to protecting the privacy and security of your personal information. This privacy policy covers the website: www.fraudhl.com. By visiting or using this website, you consent to the data collection and use practices described in this policy. As with the Terms of Use, the mere act of visiting this website, even without reading the subject legal document, will be viewed as acceptance of the terms contained herein and therein.

Information concerning your computer hardware and software is automatically collected. This information may include your IP address, browser type, domain names, access times and referring website addresses. FRAUD HOTLINE, LLC uses this information to maintain the quality of its service, provide general statistics about website visitors, analyze trends, administer the site, track users' movements around the site, and gather demographic information about our user base as a whole. In addition, we use session ID cookies. These session Cookies are used to make it easier for you to navigate our site. A session ID Cookie expires when you close your browser. FRAUD HOTLINE, LLC does not, however, automatically collect other personal information from reporting parties. Personally identifying information is stored only when a reporting party voluntarily submits the information. Subscriber information, including user names, passwords, and submitted reports, are kept secure on our servers and is only used to assist you in accessing your account as a client.

FRAUD HOTLINE, LLC allows visitors to provide personally identifying information such as name and email address for purposes of inquiry related to our services and subscription. FRAUD HOTLINE, LLC does not sell, rent, lease, trade or share visitors' personal information and communicates only with users who express an interest in receiving e-mails and information from FRAUD HOTLINE, LLC.

All communications between www.fraudhl.com and a user's web browser are accomplished using a secure site that does not allow users to transfer or receive confidential information unless they are using a validated encrypted session. FRAUD HOTLINE, LLC may use third parties for Web-based services that include email delivery and storage. Because no method of internet transmission or electronic storage is absolutely secure, FRAUD HOTLINE, LLC cannot guarantee security of your personal information, however, FRAUD HOTLINE, LLC will take reasonable precautions to protect personal information in its possession from loss, misuse and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration and destruction.

This website contains links to other sites. Please be aware that FRAUD HOTLINE, LLC is not responsible for the privacy practices of such other sites. We encourage users to be aware when they leave this website and to read the privacy statements of each and every website that collects personally identifiable information. This privacy statement applies solely to information collected by FRAUD HOTLINE, LLC.

We reserve the right to disclose your personally identifiable information as required by law and when we believe that disclosure is necessary to protect our rights and/or comply with a judicial proceeding, court order, or legal process served on FRAUD HOTLINE, LLC. If you have received unwanted, unsolicited email sent by FRAUD HOTLINE, LLC please forward a copy of that email with your request to be removed to info@fraudhl.com.

Questions or comments regarding the TERMS OF USE and/or PRIVACY POLICY should be submitted to FRAUD HOTLINE, LLC by mail to: Fraud Hotline, LLC, Post Office Box 22024, Santa Barbara, CA 93121 or by email to info@fraudhl.com. Please review this policy frequently for updates. Changes to this privacy statement will be posted as they are made. We reserve the right to modify this privacy statement at any time.
